3. Professional background / Parcours professionnel: Present Chair of TEA (Teachers of English in Austria) and editor of our disseminating journal ELT News, Have written various articles for the journal as well as have been published in VOICES (IATEFL publication) and online HTL for Pilgrims. I have a Ph.D. in English from the Department of American Studies, University of Vienna, an M.A. (summa cum lauda) and B.A. from California State University, Long Beach. I have my own company and hold seminars for businesses as well as teachers for various PH (Pedagogische Hochschulen) in Austria on topics of EQ, Time, Stress Management and Body Language in the Classroom. I teach Advertising English at the Werbe Akademie in Vienna and present at conferences throughout the world.

4. Experiences and expertise (please highlight the ones which are required in the participants' profile of the event) /I have been on the board of TEA for the past 4 years and Chair for the last one and a half years. In that capacity I have organized our summer school and edit our journal. We organize workshops for our members and have an upcoming international conference in April 2010. In this time I have established many interesting and useful contacts in the world of English teaching. Our organisation is open to all levels of English teachers from all types of institutions which means I have contacts with primary school English teachers, free-lancers and teachers in state-run institutions as well as at the tertiary level. Expertise et expérience (veuillez souligner celles requises dans le profil des participants à l'événement)

5. Multiplier's capacity /Through our electronic newsletter and our journal TEA, as well as through my regular contacts with other distributors of information (Anglistik Alumni Club, AARG leiter for high school teachers as well as other institutions) we disseminate information of interest to English teachers on a regular basis. capacité de démultiplication:
